WHEREAS, it was fortuitous that Adam was assigned to the office space of Suite 8 in the most important legislative year of Senator Cohen's tenure; and

WHEREAS, Adam has proved himself to be outstanding in every aspect of work, from research to constituent service to reconnaissance, although his enjoyment of caucus meetings was diminished once his cover was blown; and

WHEREAS, Adam has invested his time and energy and heart into working on lottery implementation and scholarship legislation, and he is now on a first name basis with the entire staff of NASPL; and

WHEREAS, Adam has found to his delight and dismay that the legislative process was everything that he expected; and

WHEREAS, Adam has explored the culinary delights of Nashville with fellow intern Kevin Manning, never straying far from the wings and hills of 2nd Avenue; and

WHEREAS, Adam has been joined in his endeavors in Suite 8 by Courtney McEwen, and together they have created a call and response routine entitled "What time is it?" to the delight of all in Suite 8, but Adam himself; and

WHEREAS, Adam has proved invaluable to the other residents of Suite 8, including Tiffany Dale, Bernadette Benavente, and Marilyn Dillihay, who would never have survived this session without him; and

WHEREAS, said residents of Suite 8 will have to learn how to open the door in the morning once Adam has moved on to his future endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Adam has proved himself to be dedicated, loyal, passionate, perseverant, and just an all around great guy; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Adam Nahmias for his excellent service as a legislative intern for Senator Steve Cohen and the State of Tennessee and express our heartfelt best wishes for great success in all his future endeavors.
